William (Bill) Pfohl is a Psychology Professor Emeritus at Western Kentucky University in Bowling Green, Kentucky, where he has been a trainer for 38 years. He is an original NCSP and is a Licensed Psychologist in Kentucky. He taught a course in Cognitive Behavior Therapy to 2nd year school and clinical psychology students as part of their interventions sequence. He also sees children and teens in a part-time private practice.

Bill has Basic and Advanced Certificates from REBT Institute in New York City. He still regularly attends in-service trainings on Cognitive Behavior Therapy. His training included CBT, REBT, and Multimodal Therapy in graduate school. He has updated his skills and knowledge for ACT and CBT at the Beck Institute.

Bill received his Psy.D. degree from the Graduate School of Applied and Professional Psychology at Rutgers University in 1979. He has been NASP President twice and he is a past President of the International School Psychology Association. He was awarded NASP Lifetime Achievement Award (2010) and is a Fellow of APA in Divisions 16, 37, and 52.
